

Bio --- Evangelist “Lady G” Dancy aka “The Queen of Limousine”

Celebrating the achievements of Evangelist “Lady G” Dancy.

Evangelist Lady G is a caring, full of life fashionista entrepreneur. Founder of the 1st and only All Female Limousine Service to the Stars. (1985-2020)

Having driven in NJ (where she hails from) now retired in Marietta, GA. Lady G’s Limousine service drove the likes of Rev. James Cleveland, Whitney Houston, Maya Angelou, The Temptations, Chaka Kahn, The Michael Jackson Thriller Dancers, Phyllis Hyman, Anita Baker and Ricky Schroeder to name a few.

Lady G also served as an Ambassador to the United Nation and traveled on Peace Missions to China, Jerusalem, Paris and London. In addition, Lady G received the Lifetime Achievement Award under President Biden in 2022.

Gladys Dancy was the 1st Black Instructor at the Barbizon School of Fashion in New York. Lady G still struts on the Senior Runway in various communities.

We salute your excellence in entrepreneurship and your love for Fashion. You are Black History!